DECEMBER CELEBRATES HUMAN RIGHTS

Human Rights Day is observed this month. It marks the 70th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, a milestone document that proclaimed the inalienable rights everyone is inherently entitled to as a human being—regardless of race, color, religion, sex, language, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, place of birth, or other status.

Stand up for equality, justice, and human dignity

Throughout the year, we celebrate the role models, mentors, and innovators who inspire us to appreciate diversity.

For more information visit einstein.yu.edu/diversity